

Author Biography

Andrea Malam BEM

-  www.andreamalam.com
-  connect@andreamalam.co.uk
-  linkedin.com/in/dr-andrea-malam-bem-b38aa313a
-  www.instagram.com/honourable_woman

About the Author

Andrea Malam BEM is a multi-award-winning Leader in Diversity and an international role model, who enjoys making an impact, inspiring and motivating others. She is a British Empire Medal recipient for exemplary service for her role in law enforcement protecting the public.

Andrea is the Founder Trustee of the charity Saving Dreams, which aims to help alleviate suffering alongside enabling children to escape poverty with education and support. The charity supports various projects, helping thousands of underprivileged children and their families worldwide.

Andrea is also a published author and speaker, a philanthropist, and a humanitarian, who enjoys Connecting, Supporting and Empowering Dreamers to achieve their goals.

Andrea was born Andrea Alexander in Mumbai, India to parents of British Ancestry but settled in London, United Kingdom, where she currently lives with her husband and two children.

Book Synopsis

Curious to find out what it means to be an Anglo-Indian?

Join Andrea Malam BEM as she shares the story of her journey from Bombay to London, and the search for her ancestry and identity.

Along with her contributors, Andrea reveals the Anglo-Indian experience in different countries as she investigates what it means to be a modern-day Anglo-Indian.

Discovering changing perceptions along the way, they explore the rich memories, culture, and successes of their community.

Along with stories of positive thinking, passion, and determination, Andrea reveals the Anglo-Indian experience in different countries.

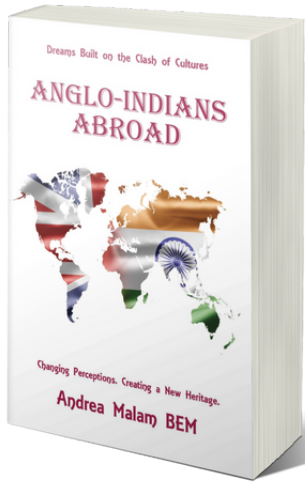

Advance Information Sheet

From Book Brilliance Publishing

Anglo-Indians Abroad

Dreams Built on the Clash of Cultures

by Andrea Malam BEM

Curious to find out what it means to be an Anglo-Indian?

Join Andrea Malam BEM as she shares the story of her journey from Bombay to London, and the search for her ancestry and identity. Along with her contributors, Andrea reveals the Anglo-Indian experience in different countries as she investigates what it means to be a modern-day Anglo-Indian.

Discovering changing perceptions along the way, they explore the rich memories, culture, and successes of their community.

ISBN:

978-1-913770-48-8

Price: £10.99

Publication Date:

8th September 2022

Format: Paperback

Size: 198 x 129 x 7 mm

135 pages

Category:

Non-fiction; memoir;
anthology; culture

Available from Gardners, and on Amazon, online, in all good bookshops and direct from the publisher

About the Author:

Andrea Malam BEM is a proud Anglo-Indian, now living in London with her husband and two children.

She is a philanthropist, humanitarian, author, speaker, and Founder and CEO of the charity Saving Dreams

Key Sales Points:

- Along with stories of positive thinking, passion, and determination, Andrea reveals the Anglo-Indian experience in different countries.
- As well as sharing her own experiences of being an Anglo-Indian abroad, Andrea is joined by family and friends from all over the world, including actor Joseph Oliver and artist Lyn Tyler.
- With a foreword by Vishwajeet Deshmukh, Lawyer and Historian of South Asia
- Includes a chapter about famous Anglo-Indians.
- Released 75 years after the Indian Partition, currently a newsworthy item.
- A fascinating read for anyone interested in family history and memoirs.

"While the memories of the Anglo-Indians beyond the Indian shores fade, the need to preserve their stories is vital ... Anglo-Indians Abroad is one such critical attempt to document this gap in stories."

Vishwajeet Deshmukh, Lawyer and Historian of South Asia

